Respond Remember Rejoice Renew	How wonderful is our world? How could we make God's world even more wonderful? What would happen if we did not look after our world?

This is an outline of the teaching of the Church covered in OUR WORLD:

- God created the world and it was good.
- Everyone shares God's world.
- We share in taking care of the world.
- the implications of being part of God's global family.
- Praising God by praying a psalm.

STANDARD SUMMARY

- Some children will recognise some words and phrases from the Psalms and recognise that people want to take care of the world and share with others because God said, "Take care of my world!"
- They will be able to say what they wonder about the world and how we can all work together to care for the world and will be able to talk about their own experiences of the world and what they love about our world.
